College Motto:
To add to knowledge and information, enhancement of competitive spirit and to bring about a positive transformation in one’s personality.

Mission

Established in the year 1966 at Chamata of West Nalbari area dominated by rural environment and educational backwardness, the “MISSION” of the College is to create awareness and inquisitiveness for higher education among the rural people (mostly economically backward) in general and spread female literacy in particular, thereby enabling them to lead an enlightened life marked by all round development of personality with emphasis on their future “CAREER” and to make this institution a key player in the matter of creating meritorious students for entering the University and other higher pursuits of learning.
Kamrup College, Chamata, a premier and the oldest institution of Higher Education in the entire West Nalbari area came into existence on July 25, 1966 as a result of untiring efforts of some magnanimous sons of the locality supported by the unstinted zeal of the intelligentsia and agricultural populace. At present, a provincialised co-educational under graduate Arts College, it has traversed fifty two years of illustrious heritage in the field of higher education. Having contributed significantly to the academic and cultural life of the locality, this noble institution has not only withstood the test of divine, but has also carried a niche for itself in the field of Higher Education. In fact, the rural populace founded this seat of higher learning in order to kindle the light of learning which substantially enabled them to come out from rural backwardness to the World of Higher Education through knowledge of wisdom.

The College offers plus two level (H.S) and B.A. semester course in the under graduate level. It has 10 (Ten) departments. The scenic beauty and serene atmosphere of the college attracts one and all. A group of dedicated faculties have worked continuously to bring the college to its present prestigious position.

Friends, in this prospectus we have tried to provide information about the college for your convenience. At this opportune moment, it is a privilege on my part to give a very hearty welcome to all those who are willing to pursue their education at Kamrup College, Chamata. The college always thrives towards disseminating harmonious knowledge by the transfusion of novel thoughts and ideas and at the standard of college in order to make it a real centre of Higher Education with special emphasis on quality and excellence.

Let us join our hands for the bright future of the college.

(Dr. D.K. Bezbarah)
Principal
Kamrup College, Chamata

Vision

Kamrup College, Chamata is committed to all around development of the students who are pursuing their studies in this institution of higher education. We are planning to introduce a few career oriented and vocational courses for creating self-employment avenues among the students, in this highly competitive society. In order to keep pace with the global changes, the college endeavours to achieve quality and excellence among the stakeholders. In this age of knowledge explosion, where knowledge commission has been set up, we are also planning to make the college a real centre of excellence in its true sense.

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

Quality is of vital importance in every area and particularly in the field of higher education and the growing consciousness regarding the enhancement of quality in higher education through the globe profusely speaks of it.

Keeping in mind the new challenges of higher education, the college has constituted an “INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL” to look into the qualitative aspects of the college. It is a high level committee that sets down quality parameters and ensures their implementation.
Extension Education

Kamrup College, Chamata the only recognized institution of Higher Education in the entire West Nalbari area has been working in the field of imparting education both formal and non-formal since its inception in 1966. Besides facilitating formal Degree education upto B.A. level, the college, to its credit, has also organized many extension education programmes. However, as these programmes were organized in a rather enthusiastic manner than any long-term goal, the actual feedback of such programmes was not realized by the college. Therefore, it was a long felt need of the college to establish an Extension Education Centre at the college and accordingly in the second half of the year 2003 initiatives were taken under the active guidance of Dr. Brajendra Nath Ray Choudhury (author of “Extension Education in Higher Education System”) of Gauhati University which finally resulted in the establishment of an Extension Education centre at Kamrup College, Chamata.

Understanding that Extension Education is the third dimension in higher education, (the Extension Education Centre) Kamrup College has rededicated itself to the services of the community and resolves to seek continued public support to such out-reach programmes. Keeping in mind the needs of such programmes, the Extension Education Centre of Kamrup College has identified the following department wise programme to be organized from time to time.

The department has been running with vitality with MIL (Compulsory subject) Advance Assamese or Elective Assamese (optional sub) and major course. The department bears a glorious past with enlightened teachers and successful alumni. Most of the alumnae are rendering services in the various educational institution such as universities, colleges etc. Some of them show excellence through research work and others in social cultural and political fields also. The department has been continuously producing at least one or two first class degree holder almost every year. About ten nos. of experienced teachers got retired and gone outside and now three nos. of energetic, dynamic teachers have been teaching to their capacities using traditional and modern methods.

The Department of Assamese of Kamrup College has been flourishing with the dream of enduring the mother language. It keeps the mission of protecting the language with the local dialectical varieties, folk literature, colourful cultural assets and the like. The department aspires to motivate the students to be the devotee in the work of growth of literature and culture. We expect students to be acquainted with world literature through the Major Modern Indian Language (Assamese). The Department of Assamese hopes to popularize the folk-literature and culture amongst the new generation. In concise, the mission of the department is to help the institution of higher education in growing as a center of excellence of imparting education and all round development of the learners. Since language is the linking bridge of the people, we hope that people will be able to expect a better society of humanity through reading writing and translating from other languages also.

Arabic is one of the Semitic groups of languages and today it is used as mother tongue in various parts of the world. For many centuries in the middle ages it was the language of learning, culture and progressing thoughts. Though out the civilized world. There were more works produced in philosophical, medical, historical, religious, astronomical and geographical fields through the medium of Arabic. Its alphabet, next to the Latin, is widely used system in the world and its influence in the form of numerous loan-words has occupied an important role in the linguistic world. Hence, it has become able to occupy the bank of an international language. This language has also great importance in the present day context.

The Arabic subject was introduced in 1984 in H.S. level and after that it was introduced as general Subject in the degree level in 1986. The major course in this subject was started from the session 2001-2002.
The department of Economics is as old as the college itself. To enable students of predominantly rural areas marked by poor economic background to pursue higher education, major course was introduced in the year 1976. During its march towards higher education in Economics, the department is trying to encourage students to this college. However, with the changing time, the department is facing the problem of enrolment due to growth of large number of colleges. Despite some inherent problems, the department is devoting its sincere efforts to produce better human resources.

Besides organizing regular departmental seminars, the department has also successfully organized UGC-sponsored seminars.

Kamrup College, Chamata was established in 1966. It is a rural based institution of co-education in the lower part of the state of Assam. Kamrup College has been imparting general education to the students of this locality. Education as a subject of study was incorporated in the curriculum of Kamrup College in the very year of its establishment in 1966.

The Department also offers vocational training course in collaboration with MSME, Indian Training Institute (ITI), Nalbari, local entrepreneurs and value-based education including yoga & physical education by district yoga institute.

Department of Political Science of Kamrup College, Chamata is one of the oldest Departments of this discipline in the region. The department introduced the subject both in pre-degree and degree courses since its inception. On 01-08-1975, the Department introduced honours course at the degree level. Late Binay Chandra Barman was the founder teacher of the Department who later on retired as the first regular principal of the College. Rajen Baruah one of the promoters of the college, first served as a part time teacher and joined the Department permanently in 1971. He was followed by Narayan Ch. Sarma and Gauridhar Kalita. At present there are three permanent staffs in the Department.

The department has introduced Semester System from the academic session 2011-12 with the revised syllabus given by Gauhati University. A number of students from the Department have shown good result in B. A. Exam and have obtained Master Degree from various Universities and many have cleared different competitive examinations.
Mathematics as a faculty, though very important in higher education, was not introduced in the foundation year 1966 of the college. However, with the demands of the students and guardians it was introduced in 1975 in the Arts stream of H.S. Class. Of late, Mathematics has been an important and full fledged faculty of the College since 1981 in Arts stream of degree course.

The Department of Sanskrit is one of the most important department introduced by the college and it is as old as the college itself. The Kamrup College, Chamata was established in the year 1966 and it was inaugurated by Kalaguru Bishnuprasad Rabha, a renowned poet, artist, social worker, freedom fighter, Ganasilpi of India. At that inaugural meeting he delivered a lecture through Sanskrit language. It reflects the importance and popularity of this Sanskrit language. Late Gangadhar Choudhury, noted advocate, social worker, reputed Sanskrit scholar of the locality, started the Sanskrit department as a teacher to teach a few students in the one year P.U. course under Gauhati University. Next to him Sri Ramani Kanta Bhatta, Sri Achyut Kumar Mishra and Dr. Phatik Chandra Sarma were appointed as whole time lecturer in the Sanskrit Department as a lecturer for three years. Next to him, Dr. Nakul Chandra Deka (now retired as a Principal of Bapuji College, Sarthebari) was appointed as whole time lecturer in this department. After him Late Debendra Goswami served the department as head till his sudden demise in 2014. Since then Prof. Bhagawan Goswami (who joined the department in 1999) is serving as the head of the department. Next to him, Prof. Tapan Kumar Kashyap and Dr. Subodh Kumar Mishra Bhagawati, both are also serving in the same department from 2008 and 2009 respectively.
